

Application for Best Volunteer

Beth Reed
Tybee Post Theater

Judges' score - 9.7

Detailed description of the volunteer

Beth Reed of Fight Dirty Tybee is a highly deserving candidate for Best Volunteer. With her passion for environmental activism and dedication to preserving the natural beauty of Tybee Island, she has made a tremendous impact on the community. Her work with Fight Dirty Tybee, a local organization dedicated to removing litter and debris from the area, has been instrumental in keeping the island clean and healthy. Beth's commitment to the cause is unwavering, and she can often be found volunteering her time and energy, rain or shine. Her leadership, organization skills, and positive attitude have inspired others to join the cause, making her a valuable asset to the community. Overall, Beth Reed is a shining example of what it means to be a dedicated and selfless volunteer, and she is more than deserving of recognition as Best Volunteer.

What is the story behind the nomination?

Beth Reed of Fight Dirty Tybee showed exceptional dedication and hard work in ensuring the Tybee Post Music Festival was a clean and environmentally responsible event. Her tireless efforts to keep the festival grounds free from waste and litter were truly remarkable. Her passion for sustainability was evident in her efforts to sort recycling throughout the festival, and her contributions played a significant role in keeping the event both enjoyable and eco-friendly. Beth's dedication to preserving the natural beauty of Tybee Island and promoting environmental responsibility was on full display at the festival, and she should be commended for her hard work and commitment. Her efforts have set a positive example for others to follow and have helped to make the Tybee Post Music Festival a more sustainable and responsible event.

Are they a repeat volunteer?

Yes

How many volunteer hours do they have?

15 hours volunteered for the festival. Beth is also a volunteer for the Tybee Post Theater events. She has volunteered around 20 hours in 2022.

"Beth Reed was simply amazing in keeping the Tybee Post Music Festival clean and environmentally responsible." - Debbie (concert attendee)

"I was truly impressed by Beth's commitment and hard work, and I have no doubt that she will continue to make a positive impact on the community through her activism and dedication to preserving the environment."
- Steve (concert attendee)

BEST VOLUNTEER
SUBMISSION